

Since the implementation of Indiana law preventing telemarketing calls became law, we have enjoyed interruption free suppers for the first time in many years! It is wonderful! Please do not dilute the law by allowing the "existing customer" provisions. I want to enjoy my family at the dinner table without calls from anyone!